

Tavernier Tschanz is hiring

2-3 Senior Corporate Lawyers

Tavernier Tschanz is a leading Swiss corporate boutique law firm that enjoys a reputation of excellence in the market and among its clients in the fields of corporate transactions, corporate/commercial law, tax, as well as international commercial arbitration and litigation.

We assist a very diverse clientele of large global companies, PE and VC funds, institutional investors, as well as successful SME companies, technology start-ups and entrepreneurs. Our clients span a large range of industries, such as energy, utilities, education, manufacturing, IT and new technologies, life sciences and pharma, media, automotive and transport, luxury, hotels, banking and finance, international trade, real estate, distribution and retail, as well as marketing and sports.

Our corporate lawyers have strong expertise in corporate finance, advising on all types of transactions, such as M&A, takeovers, LBOs, MBOs, MBIs, restructuring, divestitures, spin-offs, PE and VC financings, as well as general domestic and international finance.

Our firm regularly acts as lead counsel in cross-border transactions with targets located in Switzerland or abroad. Tavernier Tschanz advises both buyers and sellers and has wide-ranging experience in auction processes (including organizing and running the process).

We endeavor to bring added value through innovative and creative solutions to the needs of our clients. Our team-oriented approach has been praised as effectively supporting challenging and time-sensitive transactions. Tavernier Tschanz is regularly described by directories and guides as "punching above its weight" given our client base and the transactions that we handle.
